EXECUTIVE WORKSHOP SOFTWARE UPDATE

We are currently working on a new, full version of Executive Workshop. Version 4.0 will hopefully be released by August 2008. I say “hopefully” because the testing process will take time. As you know, we like our software to be flawless in operation for our customer base. I will mention the new version in our next newsletter with more release date information.

We have taken improvement suggestions from clients and incorporated them into the new product. If you have any features you would like to see in Executive Workshop, please contact us.
